

Fraud Detection Report

Isolation Forest

Isolation Forest is an anomaly detection algorithm that isolates unusual observations using random decision trees. Fraudulent transactions are isolated with shorter path lengths than normal transactions.

Feature Engineering

Important features include transaction amount, login attempts, transaction velocity, IP address changes and device fingerprint mismatch.

Model Output

The model produces anomaly scores that help identify suspicious transactions.